Liberi di Giocare – Europe and refugees, initiatives, rules and comparing experiences of social inclusions. Free to play, everyone with the same dignity. This should be, but unfortunately it's not. Sport, everyone says, is recognized as a extraordinary tool for inclusion and integration. Nevertheless there are too many obstacles that refugees and asylum seekers experience on their skin when the game becomes "official". A confrontation between experiences and rules for the inclusion of refugees and asylum seeker through football. Campaigns and initiatives to ask the institutions – sports and not – to adequate their rules that still narrow the participation at the game.

With the participation of: Alessandra Morelli (UNHCR), Vincenzo Manco (Uisp President), Fabio Appetiti (AIC), Davide Drago (“We want to play” campaign). Moderator: Raffaella Chiodo Karpinsky (FARE)
